Change of editorship for El Mundo: the beginning of a new phase for the newspaper

Milan, 30 January 2014 – RCS MediaGroup announces that the Editor of El Mundo, Pedro J. Ramírez, will leave his position as head of the newspaper and of the publishing department of the Unidad Editorial Group.

During the Board of Directors meeting of the Spanish subsidiary Unidad Editorial - held today - the Publisher decided to start a new phase for El Mundo, whilst still safeguarding its independence and objectivity, together with its high quality content.

The editor Ramírez, founder of El Mundo and undoubtedly a key player in the Spanish news media, who will continue to have a relationship of collaboration with the Group, will sign off on his last edition of the newspaper on Sunday 2 February.

Editorship of El Mundo will be assigned to Casimiro García-Abadillo, currently deputy editor of the newspaper, with the objective of relaunching its hard copy circulation and further strengthening its digital leadership. The Publisher firmly believes that this new phase will create the primary conditions to re-establish the newspaper's financial and economic stability.

The Board of Directors of Unidad Editorial and the entire management of the RCS Group would like to thank editor Ramírez for his contribution to the creation and growth of one of the most important Spanish newspapers and managing it over this long period of time.
