

Clarification

Milan, 12 June 2008 – With respect to press reports of today, RCS MediaGroup would like to clarify that, as agreed at the last Board of Directors' meeting on 12 May, in view of the uncertain situation of the economy and the advertising market in particular in both Italy and Spain, a Board meeting has been called for 16 June to provide, in advance on the meeting already scheduled for 6 August, an update on the Group's performance, business lines and operating outlook for the 2008 financial year. At present, there are no plans to change the strategic guidelines and objectives included in the current three-year Industrial Plan.
