

Press Release

RCS Libri sets up its new managerial organization chart

RCS MediaGroup – RCS Libri: following Ferruccio de Bortoli's installation in the Chief Executive Officer office of RCS Libri, the Company has restructured its own managerial organization chart.

Giulio Lattanzi shall take over the office of Director General and partner the Chief Executive Officer.

The Division "Libri" shall be reorganized by setting up the separation of the activities that refer to the Publishing Houses from the commercial and logistic activities. Rosaria Carpinelli, who was already the publishing director responsible for the Rizzoli Publishing House, has been called to head the Division "Libri", while Vincenzo Rizzo, already the commercial director of the same Division "Libri", has been appointed in charge of the commercial department.

As a consequence thereof, the top management of the Group's Publishing Houses have been redefined: Rizzoli shall be included under the direction of Paolo Zaninoni, already editor of the non-fiction and the foreign fiction sectors in the same company; Elisabetta Sgarbi is the new publishing director of Bompiani, of which she had already been appointed editor in chief. Luisa Sacchi and Ornella Robbiati have been confirmed in their offices at Fabbri Editori and at Sonzogno respectively. Lorenzo Fazio, who was in charge of the Einaudi Pocket Books Division, now heads BUR.

Mario Andreose, a historical figure and the mind of Bompiani, has been entrusted the literary direction.

In the end, a new Division named "Education" has been set up to strengthen the presence of the Group on the market of Schoolbooks and professional books; it has been entrusted to Massimo Galioni, who shall report directly to the Director General. The new Division "Education" shall include all the activities of RCS Scuola and of the Divisions "Università", "Professioni" and "Reference" of RCS Libri.

Milan, 26th September 2003

RCS MediaGroup
Communication Department

For further information, please contact:

Paolo Klun, phone nr: 02 2584 4082, Roberta Pucci, phone nr: 02 2584 4032