

Press Release

Paolo Mieli has been appointed editor at Corriere della Sera

RCS MediaGroup informs that the Board of Directors of RCS Quotidiani was held today and designated Mr. Paolo Mieli, who was already the publishing director of RCS Group and editor at Corriere della Sera from 1992 to 1997, for the appointment to the office of editor at Corriere della Sera.

The Board expressed to Mr. Paolo Mieli its kindest thanks for his availability and wished him a profitable stay in his new office.

The Board guaranteed Mr. Paolo Mieli its own convinced and unanimous effort for further consolidating and developing the leadership of Corriere della Sera, while rigorously respecting its traditional authority, independence and professionalism, and continuing the newspaper's chosen editorial line. The full valorisation of the historical characteristics and the resources of Corriere della Sera will play a major role for the achievement of the demanding goals set in the Group's recently approved industrial plan.

The Board also heartily thanked Mr. Stefano Folli, who will collaborate with Corriere della Sera as a leader writer, for his work at the newspaper and for his availability to guarantee his own precious contribution in terms of culture and professionalism to the Corriere della Sera.
