

Press Release

Thanks Mr. Calabrese. The new editor of La Gazzetta dello Sport shall be appointed in a few days

Milan, 15th November 2004 - RCS MediaGroup greets and heartily thanks Pietro Calabrese: he is going to leave his office as editor at Gazzetta dello Sport, the first Italian sports daily, on December 1st. The company wishes Mr. Calabrese all the best in his new prestigious office.

Pietro Calabrese was appointed editor at Gazzetta on 11th March 2002. During his two and a half years' mandate the sports daily has confirmed its own double supremacy both by increasing its sales and readership and by conquering new shares in the advertising market.

Before his appointment as editor of La Gazzetta dello Sport, Pietro Calabrese had already worked inside RCS Group in the office of editor at the monthly magazine Capital, where he had obtained the same successful results.

RCS guarantees the replacement in the editor office at La Gazzetta dello Sport within a very short period of time so that success can be gained continuously in the wake of such a great predecessor and following the important prestigious tradition of the newspaper.

Milan, 15th November 2004

RCS MediaGroup

Communication Department